The West Virginia Wine and Jazz Fest, Inc. is a nonprofit organization that seeks to return the proceeds from the annual festival back to the community in various ways. During the past twenty years of music, wine and fun we have been given the chance to reach out to the community and help many deserving groups and individuals. These include endowed scholarships to the WVU School of Music, sponsorship of educational endeavors and classes at WVU, free concerts for area middle/high schools, sponsorship of various student and community organizations that assist with the festival, etc.
